

DRUM - SING - DANCE

with Barbara Borden & Friends

A Day of Transformation and Celebration

Saturday, June 8, 2019

at Occidental Center for the Arts

Workshop 12:30 - 3:30 PM

Explore the energizing and meditative power of music and movement! Enjoy the transformative nature of drumming, singing and dancing in community. All levels welcome. Please bring your own drum (djembe & dundun preferable – limited drums available).

Workshop Fee - $60 until May 8th, $75 thereafter
Scholarship Sponsor - $100 or more helps fund
scholarships for this workshop.

“There are few people whose personality, talent and passion can energize a room like Barbara. As her student, I have had direct experience with the compelling force of love and music that she’s able to harness and transmit.” – Charles MacDonald, M.D.

Register Online at
Brown Paper Tickets

~ ATTEND ONE OR BOTH EVENTS ~

Free Film Screening

DVD & Digital Release Celebration

4:00 - 6:00 PM

Keeper of the Beat:

A Woman’s Journey

Into the Heart of Drumming

Award-winning hour-long documentary on the drumming, life and times of Barbara Borden.

Immediately following the film join Barbara Borden with her Be In The Beat Drum Ensemble for live drumming with audience participation. Please bring your own drum (limited drums available).

Barbara Borden, drummer, performer, composer and teacher, is a veteran of the San Francisco and women’s music scene. She is currently the subject of the documentary film, Keeper of the Beat: A Woman’s Journey Into the Heart of Drumming. Filmed on four continents, this award-winning film was produced and directed by three-time Emmy Award-winner, David L. Brown. See trailer at kobmovie.com

barbaraborden.com

occidentalcenterforthearts.org